CHICAGO, MARCH 6, 1865.

THE CITY.

PERSONAL.—We learn that Capt. Chittenden, U. S. Deputy Provost Marshal of this city and who was lately ordered to Fort Delaware, Delaware River, on Friday next for the East with a company of one hundred men, two-thirds of whom are in their soldier accoutrements. Many of his company are old soldiers who were with him on the Southern front.

THE OLD FOLKS' CONCERT.—The "Old Folks" Concert troupe lately returned from Europe, will give a series of their concerts in this city next week, commencing on Wednesday. The two concerts announced will be confident to call out one of the largest audiences of the season. We shall give the details in a future issue.

THE WOMEN'S REVIVAL.—The election of officers for the much needed institution will take place this (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the Young Men's Christian Association Rooms—when all ladies interested in the good work will have an opportunity of becoming members, and having a voice in the election.

HIGHER WAGES.—We understand that a large number of the carpenters of the city held a meeting last evening at the hall of the Working Men's Association, at which it was, after discussion, unanimously agreed to demand higher wages, a week from Monday. It is probable that the carpenters will join together into a protective Union.

GOOD DOG.—A burglar attempted an entrance into the house of Mr. H. W. Wood, 236 North LaSalle street, last night, but was driven off by a large and noble specimen of the Newfoundland dog. The burglar had no booty to entrust to the faithful brute, and Mr. Wood gives notice that the thief can get his knife by calling for it.

GRAND GIFT CONCERT.—The reputation of the Great Western Band is a sufficient guaranty to satisfy the public that the Gift Concert they announce to be given at the Metropolitan Hall, on the 17th inst., will be honestly what they represent. In addition to the musical entertainment, (in which the Great Western will give their very best,) every ticket holder will draw a prize. Full particulars respecting this Gift Concert, will be found in our advertising columns.

BANK STATEMENT.—We have received the statement of the Mechanics' Bank of this city, for February, Mechanics' We learn that the amount due to the depositors is $695,309; the increase of postings accounts for the month is 27; and the amount of cash and cash assets is $70,188. 79. Under the supervision of Sidney Myers, esq., Cashier, this institution is steadily advancing in public favor, and bids fair to speedily attain a front rank among the saving organizations of the country.

FUNERAL.—Prof. Fory of this city delivered a lecture at Davenport on Wednesday evening. The Gazette thus closes its lengthy and very favorable notice of his lecture. "If such a thing were practicable, we should be pleased to have the Professor deliver a regular course of lectures to crowded audiences, believing he is in no better way could any which pertain to the acquisition of knowledge, calculated to give breadth to the sphere of thought and elevation to moral and religious sentiment."

FIRE.—The alarm for the third district, Thursday afternoon, was caused by a fire breaking out in the roof of a two-story frame house, No. 190 Clark street. The house was occupied by Thomas Kennedy and owned by Wm. Childs. Loss estimated at $200.

FIRE.—This morning, between twelve and one o'clock, fire was discovered issuing from the rear of the four-story brick block near the corner of Clark and Randolph streets, occupied by Wagner's Hall. The engines were promptly on the spot, and owing to the favorable location of the building, succeeded in confining the fire to the rear of the third story, where it originated. Owing to the lateness of the hour it is impossible to ascertain the loss. Several offices and a workshop were burned out, casing, however, by no very heavy damage. The origin of the fire is unknown.

THE RANGERS-MINER.—This old, and well known troops gave one of their characteristic concerts last evening, at Bryan Hall, to a very fair audience. The troupe is composed as follows: Supt., Mrs. Lizzie Baker; contralto, Miss Mattie Bonsall; tenors, G. Galloway; bass, J. M. Bonsall—making a very effective quartette. The programme was made up of the old fashioned songs and ballads, homely as the old fireides, and just as dear for old recollection's sake. The chief charm of the concert, to us, was in the bells, with their sweet, soothing, dreamy tones. They were manipulated with wonderful rapidity, and rang with much taste. It is in the slow movements, however, one catches the fascinating, magnetizing music, as softly sweet as an Æolian harp. Mr. W. K. Beeford, a very accomplished pianist, accompanies the troupe. The second concert will be given this evening, and a matinee this afternoon for before and children.

THE FIFTH BOARD OF TRADE REGIMENT AND 2ND PEACE MEN.—A Memphis correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette gives the following in regard to the First Board of Trade regiment, from this city. It is but another of the many acts of warning continually coming to the traitorous sycophants at home from the loyal and true-hearted soldiers in the field. Their breathes in every letter a spirit of love and devotion to their country, a determination to subdue the rebellion and to put an end of maintaining the Union, which should teach those at home now using every means to render their efforts abortive, and their machinations [illegible]:

[illegible] the Colonel of the 72d Illinois (First Board of Trade) [illegible] left the other day for the North, to visit those in this city, and attend to some business. Major [illegible] Minnesota, Ohio, Indiana and Missouri also have a large proportion of Democrats. We hope that Mr. [illegible] with that thorough patriot at the head of our State government, will succeed in getting rid of [illegible] who are in office, and who, if they can get the power, will sell the State to the rebels. [illegible] paper, in the hands of so perverting [illegible] gang—to a man as Mr. V [illegible] be unscrupulous!

NEWSPAPER IN THE HOLLAND LANGUAGE.—Mr. John Van Wood, the publisher of the Pioneer, the only regularly [illegible] newspaper in the States,) whose printing establishment was destroyed by fire at Milwaukee on the night of February 7th, is now in the city, endeavoring to establish it in larger form. Mr. V. comes to us with high recommendations from the very best of Western men, among whom he has resided for the last nine years; and judging from documents in his possession, his paper was receiving a very beneficial influence among his countrymen. As there are about 150,000 Hollanders in the Northwestern States, and considerably over the largest, industrious and intelligent class, it is our opinion that this paper is a much needed institution, and that Chicago being the great business centre of the Northwest, is the place to establish it.

We have in this city and in our immediate neighborhood, [illegible] the Calumet district—not [illegible] Holland families. They already [illegible] here, yet circulate in this city, and [illegible] Milwaukee, Minnesota, Ohio, Indiana and Missouri also have a large proportion of [illegible]. We hope that Mr. Van Wood will meet with that thorough support at the hands of our [illegible] which he needs, and [illegible] paper, in the hands of so perverting [illegible] gang—to a man as Mr. V, must be unscrupulous!
